Featuring Keynote Speaker, Brad Wall

Brad Wall served as the 14th Premier of Saskatchewan from 2007 to 2018 when he retired from public life.

During Wall's time in office, Saskatchewan added over 60,000 new jobs and broke population growth records welcoming over 160,000 new citizens through the decade of growth. His government's growth plan reformed labour legislation and regulatory environments to ensure fairness, sustainability and economic competitiveness.

Wall currently operates his own business and is a special advisor to the national law firm Osler, Hoskin and Harcourt LLP. He is an itinerant columnist for the BOE Report and the National Post and was recently named to the Advisory Board of the Canadian Global Affairs Institute.
