Module 4: Module 4 focuses on industry professionalism, proper completion of forms, and includes the current year's relicensing education requirement. This module takes place at MREA for two consecutive days of classroom study. Following the two-day classroom session, students are required to complete two online courses: Canada's Anti-Spam Legislation: Guidance for REALTORS® and Contract Law in Manitoba. After successfully completing all components of Module 4 (classroom session and online courses) students may apply for their license with the Manitoba Securities Commission.
