

Registration Form | Property Management Representative 2026

Principles of Property Management – Representative is a mandatory licensing course designed for individuals aspiring to work within a property management brokerage in Manitoba. This course equips students with the essential skills and knowledge required to effectively contribute to a property management brokerage. It covers the legal and regulatory requirements of the property management industry, ensuring that students are well-prepared to meet the industry's standards.

Upon successful completion of the course and fulfillment of the registration requirements outlined in The Real Estate Services Act, individuals will be eligible for registration as a property management representative.
